DECLARATION OF SHIREEN I. BACON

Dear Sir:

I, Shireen I. Bacon, having personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am a registered patent attorney employed by Intel Americas, Inc. and am authorized to represent Intel Corporation in connection with the above-identified patent application entitled "INVALIDATING TRANSLATION LOOKASIDE BUFFER ENTRIES IN A VIRTUAL MACHINE (VM) SYSTEM." My registration number is 40,494.
2. Intel's records, kept in the ordinary course of business, reflect that this patent application was originally drafted by one of our outside counsel, Thin V. Nguyen, with the law firm of Blakely, Sokoloff, Taylor & Zaffman, LLP ("BSTZ"). Mr. Nguyen's registration number is reflected in our records as 42,034. I took over responsibility for the prosecution of the above-referenced patent application on or about February 23, 2004.

3. The above-identified patent application names the inventors as: Erik C. Cota-Robles, Andy Glew, Stalinselvaraj Jeyasingh, Alain Kagi, Michael A. Kozuch, Gilbert Neiger, and Richard Uhlig.
4. Intel's records, kept in the ordinary course of business, reflect that on June 3, 2002, inventor Andy Glew informed the Intel Legal Department that he was leaving Intel. The email message to this effect is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
5. Intel records, kept in the ordinary course of business, also reflect that on September 23, 2003, Mr. Nguyen sent to inventors Erik Cota-Robles and Gil Neiger, via email, a final draft of the above-referenced patent application and associated figures, along with an Inventor Declaration and Power of Attorney form and an Assignment. Mr. Nguyen requested that Mr. Cota-Robles and Mr. Neiger obtain the signatures of their co-inventors on the Declaration and Power of Attorney forms. A copy of the email message is attached as Exhibit B.
6. The executed forms were returned to BSTZ by all inventors for the above-referenced application, except Andy Glew, including Erik C. Cota-Robles, Stalinselvaraj Jeyasingh, Alain Kagi, Michael A. Kozuch, Gilbert Neiger, and Richard Uhlig. I gained personal knowledge of this fact by reviewing Intel's records that are kept in the ordinary course of business. (Supporting documents included as Exhibit C).
7. The above-identified patent application was filed with an un-signed Inventor Declaration and Power of Attorney form at the U.S. Patent Office on September 30, 2003. I gained personal knowledge of this filing date by reviewing copies of papers, kept in the ordinary course of business, that Intel's legal counsel (BSTZ) received from the Patent and Trademark Office. The filing receipt for the above-identified patent application is attached hereto as Exhibit D.
8. On December 29, 2003, BSTZ received a "Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application (Filing Date Granted) with a mailing date of December 22, 2003. Again, I gained personal knowledge of this fact by reviewing Intel records kept in the ordinary course of business. The Notice to File Missing Parts is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

9. In order to timely respond to the December 22, 2003 Notice to File Missing Parts, a number of attempts and diligent efforts have been made to obtain inventor Andy Glew's signature on the Inventor Declaration and Power of Attorney form for the above-referenced patent application. I became aware of these efforts on Tuesday, March 16, 2004 when I was notified by an administrative assistant at BSTZ, Natalie Adair, that the response to the Notice to File Missing Parts was due, and the were already into the first extension period. The email notification, and several follow-on messages, are attached hereto as Exhibit F. They indicate that Andy Glew's signature had not yet been obtained.
10. During the course of the next several weeks, I learned that the following diligent efforts to obtain Mr. Glew's signature had been made:

- 1) Intel records, kept in the ordinary course of business, reflect that the final draft and figures, along with a copy of the Declaration and Power of Attorney forms, were sent to Mr. Glew, requesting his signature, via Federal Express, on September 26, 2003. Such documents were to sent to Mr. Glew at the following address:

Andy Glew
2416 Fair Oak Court
San Jose, CA 95125

By cover letter, Mr. Nguyen asked Mr. Glew to sign the forms, and to return the forms to Mr. Nguyen via fax. The forms were never returned to Mr. Nguyen. (Supporting document included as Exhibit G).

- 2) On November 12, 2003, Intel attorney Peter Lam assumed responsibility for the above-referenced patent application.
- 3) On January 16, 2004, Peter Lam's administrative assistant, Anne Collette, again sent, via Federal Express, the application, Declaration and Assignment to Mr. Glew, requesting that he sign the documents and return them in an enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope. The forms were never returned to Ms. Collette (Supporting document included as Exhibit H).

- 4) On March 16, 2004, Ms. Collette contacted Mr. Glew via email, forwarding the Declaration and Assignment, and requesting that he sign the documents and return them to her via fax or email. (Email message attached as Exhibit I)
- 5) On March 18, 2004, Mr. Glew responded to Ms. Collette via email, indicating that he had not yet read the patent application and that he was "spending all of my working hours on work I get paid for." (Email message attached as Exhibit J).
- 6) On April 6, 2004, Ms. Collette contacted me to indicate that Mr. Glew had still not responded to her efforts to obtain his signature on the Declaration and Assignment. (Email message attached as Exhibit K).
- 7) On Friday, May 7, 2004 I contacted Mr. Glew by email, requesting that he provide his signature for the documents that Ms. Collette had previously forwarded to him. (Email message attached as Exhibit L). Mr. Glew did not respond to such message.
- 8) Also on Friday, May 7, I directed Ms. Collette to send a letter, via express mail, to Mr. Glew, requesting his signatures on the formal documents. Enclosed with such letter were additional copies of the final draft of the patent application, the Declaration, the Assignment, and a stamped return envelope. This letter indicated that, if Mr. Glew failed to provide his signature within a reasonable time (one week), his failure to act would be construed as a refusal to sign. Mr. Glew did not respond to such letter. (Document attached as Exhibit M).

11. Andy Glew's last known mailing address and email address are:

2416 FairOak Court
San Jose, CA 95125
Andrew_f_glew@sbcglobal.net

12. I believe Intel has made diligent efforts to reach a joint inventor who has refused to join in an application for patent

4. The Customer Feedback Questionnaire.

Please read over the Application to make sure that it illustrates and describes the invention both accurately and completely. If you find everything in order, please execute and date the above-listed documents 2-4.

Please note that the name you sign must be exactly the same as is typed. Please advise your joint-inventors to do the same. In order to save time, it is not necessary for all of the inventors to sign on the same document. Each inventor may sign their own copy of documents 2-4, but please ensure we receive all copies. If any changes are made to the information printed on the forms, please be sure to initial next to the changes. Please also note upon execution of the U.S. Assignment, in addition to your signature, you must list the date of execution of the Assignment to the left and list the date of execution of the Declaration and Power of Attorney to the right.

After everything has been executed, return the formal documents to me via fax no later than Tuesday, September 30, 2003, preferably by Monday September 29, 2003. Please mail the formal documents by regular mail so that we may keep the originals in file.

Derek -

Any luck on tracking this down? Is it Andy Glew's signature that is holding things up? If so, let me know ASAP. He is a tough guy to track down.

It looks like one of the inventors is Andy Glew. That may be the problem. He left Intel to go to AMD. If they didn't already have his signature, they may be having trouble getting it now. If you find out that Andy's signature is the one still missing, let me know.

I've never heard of this one. Must be one I inherited from Peter. I have no idea why we would be in an extension period for the NTFMP response. Do you have signatures for this one?

Subject Immediate attention required for Formal Documents for : P10795

Dear Mr. Glew:

I know that you are very busy, but I am writing about a matter of importance that requires your immediate attention.

We are approaching a deadline regarding the submission of your signature on the declaration and assignment for the attached patent application. The documents requiring your signature were forwarded to you by both by Federal Express in January and by email on March 16, 2004. Please contact me immediately if you would like for me to forward you an additional copy of the documents.

Please take time to read the patent application, sign the documents, and return the signed documents to Anne Collette as soon as possible. You may return the signed declaration and assignment by fax to 408-720-8381. Alternatively, you may mail the signed documents to Ms. Collette at: Blakely, Sokoloff, Taylor & Zafman LLP, 1279 Oakmead Parkway, Sunnyvale, CA 94085-4040.

I understand that you are busy with other work now. But as you probably are aware, you are legally obligated to assist Intel in obtaining patents for the technology you worked on while at Intel. If you are aware of a specific item of prior art that may impact the scope of the claims, you are under a duty to identify that art to us -- we are under a duty to report that prior art to the Patent Office.

Our deadline is fast approaching. Please return the signed documents to Ms. Collette no later than Friday, May 14. If you do not do so, I can only assume that you are refusing to sign the documents, and will take steps accordingly. Feel free to call me at (512) 314-0435 with comments or questions.

Sincerely,
